

More than 1,500 church and lay officials worked at the palace in the early 14th century

△ PRICELESS FRESCOS

As major patrons of the arts, the popes filled the palace with paintings, including these frescoes from the Chapel of St. Martial.

▷ INSIDE VIEW

The Tour de la Campanie and gilded statue of the Virgin Mary can be seen from a walkway around the cloister in the Old Palace.

