

The wall functioned partly as a border, allowing China to tax goods transported along the Silk Road

▷ FRAGILE FORTIFICATION

Assaulted by the elements, watchtowers and sections of the walls are crumbling away on the unrestored Jiankou section of the Great Wall near Beijing, built by the Ming dynasty in 1368-1644.

