

25

1521 Holy Roman Emperor Charles V declared Protestant priest Martin Luther a heretic (unbeliever), worsening divisions in the Christian Church.

1861 During the US Civil War, Canadian-born soldier Sarah Edmonds joined the Northern Army, disguised as a man named Franklin Thompson.

1939 Ian McKellen, British actor. During his 60-year career, he has been cast in a variety of roles, both on stage and on screen.

1970 Octavia Spencer, Black American actor. She is the first Black female actor to be nominated for an Oscar two years in a row, winning one for her role in The Help.

Peak of success

US adventurer Erik Weihenmayer became the first blind person to climb to the summit of Mount Everest. He was featured on the cover of Time magazine in celebration of his achievements.

In the USA, a Black man named George Floyd was killed by a police officer, triggering protests around the world and bringing global attention to the #BlackLivesMatter (BLM) movement, which stands against police brutality towards Black people.

