

June

20

1975

Shark scare

US director Steven Spielberg's terrifying movie Jaws, about a great white shark with a taste for human flesh, was released in US cinemas. The film kept many Americans away from beaches throughout the summer of 1975.

Born this day

1949 Lionel Richie, Black American singer. He started out as the lead vocalist of the funk and soul band Commodores before becoming a successful solo artist in the 1980s.

1967 Nicole Kidman, Australian actor. She has starred in films such as Lion, Paddington, and The Golden Compass.

2005

Ape artist

Three paintings by the chimpanzee Congo sold for £14,000 at an auction in London, UK. He had learned how to draw aged two after being offered a pencil.

1944

First rocket

A German A-4 rocket became the first human-made object to enter space when it was blasted 176 km (109 miles) above Earth's surface.

Also on this day

1790 During the French Revolution, King Louis XVI attempted to escape the angry citizens of Paris, France, but was arrested the following day.

1895 The Kiel Canal opened in northern Germany. It is now the busiest human-made waterway in the world.

1903 On a track at the Indiana State Fairgrounds, USA, racer Barney Oldfield became the first person to drive a mile in one minute.