

August
22

Cadillac cars

One of the first car makers, the Cadillac Motor Company, was founded by US engineer Henry Leland. The luxury car company was the first to sell vehicles with lights and an electric ignition to start the engine.

1902

Also on this day

1642 English king Charles I raised his flag above Nottingham Castle, UK. It was an act of war against Parliament and triggered the first English Civil War.

1963 NASA's X-15 rocket plane set a world record by reaching an altitude of 108 km (67 miles).

1993 Jeanne-Marie Ruth-Rolland of the Central African Republic became the first woman to run for president in an African country.

1791

Haitian hero

A revolt by enslaved people of colony of Saint-Domingue marked the start of the Haitian Revolution. Gifted military general Toussaint Louverture led the struggle for the country's independence from French rule.

Legendary pirates

Irish pirate Anne Bonney, together with British pirate Mary Read, took part in capturing the sailing boat William in the Caribbean islands. Both women found fame with their swashbuckling adventures during the Golden Age of Piracy.

1720

Born this day

980 Ibn Sina/Avicenna, Muslim thinker and scientist. He wrote The Canon of Medicine, which medical students used for centuries.