

August

28

2020

Flying car

Japanese technology company SkyDrive completed the first test flight of its new flying car. The electric vehicle was flown by a pilot over the Toyota Test Field.

Born this day

1965 Shania Twain, Canadian singer and songwriter. She brought country music to the masses, selling more than 100 million records.

Steam power

1830

A steam locomotive named Tom Thumb raced a horse-drawn railway car in the USA. The locomotive broke down and was overtaken by the horse, but onlookers were still impressed. The local railway company replaced its horses with locomotives within a year.

1963

Civil rights speech

Black American civil rights leader Martin Luther King, Jr gave his most important speech to 250,000 people. His passionate "I have a dream..." speech called for an end to racial discrimination.

Also on this day

1859 The Carrington Event, the strongest solar storm ever to hit Earth, disrupted power supplies and telegraph networks.

1980 An MRI (magnetic resonance imaging) machine was first used to scan the body of a patient, at the Aberdeen Royal Infirmary in Scotland.

2017 Kenya introduced the world's strictest measure against plastic pollution – with anyone found using plastic bags facing four years in prison or a US $40,000 fine.

