

September

11

2001 9/11 attacks

In the deadliest terror attack on record, members of the terrorist group al-Qaeda hijacked US passenger planes, crashing two of them into the World Trade Center's twin towers in New York City, USA (right), a third one into the Pentagon, and a fourth in Pennsylvania. Nearly 3,000 people were killed and around 25,000 suffered serious injuries.

1942

Famous Five

British author Enid Blyton published Five on a Treasure Island, the first book in her Famous Five series. These books, featuring the adventures of four children and their dog, would go on to sell more than 100 million copies.

Born this day

1945 Franz Beckenbauer, German footballer. One of the best players in footballing history, he helped Germany win the FIFA World Cup in 1974 as a player and in 1990 as the team manager.

Also on this day

1297 Scottish forces led by William Wallace and Andrew Moray defeated a larger English army during the First War of Scottish Independence.

1903 The Milwaukee Mile, a motor racetrack in Wisconsin, USA, held its first automobile race.

1973 Military officers led by General Augusto Pinochet seized control of Chile from the elected government, establishing a military dictatorship that lasted for 17 years.