

November

14

1883

Ahoy, Matey!

An adventure novel that popularized treasure hunts and one-legged pirates, Treasure Island, by Scottish author Robert Louis Stevenson, was published for the first time.

Born this day

1907 Astrid Lindgren, Swedish author. Her children's books have sold millions internationally.

1998 Vanessa Hudgens, US actress. She is best known for her role in the High School Musical film series.

1960

School for all

Six-year-old Black American Ruby Bridges shaped history when she made her way into an all-white primary school. She became the first Black child to do so in the state of Louisiana, USA.

Also on this day

1152 BCE Ancient Egyptian labourers walked out of work in the first strike in history.

1967 The first "Day of the Colombian Woman" was celebrated in honour of the independence leader, Policarpa Salavarrieta.

2018 The jewellery of French queen Marie Antoinette, not seen in public for 200 years, was sold at an auction in Switzerland.

1889

From fiction to reality

Inspired by a famous novel, trailblazing US journalist Nellie Bly set off from Hoboken Pier in New Jersey, USA, to circle the globe in less than 80 days. She achieved her aim with time to spare – in 72 days!

