

December

27

Also on this day

1512 King Ferdinand II passed the Laws of Burgos to try to improve how Spanish settlers treated South American Indigenous Peoples.

1935 In Berlin, Germany, Regina Jonas became the first-ever female rabbi (Jewish religious leader).

2013 British adventurer Maria Leijerstam finished cycling from the Antarctic coast to the South Pole, becoming the first person to do so.

1722

Yongzheng's reign begins

The rule of Yongzheng Emperor began in China. He was one of the three great Qing Dynasty emperors, and helped to reduce corruption in the country during his peaceful 13-year reign.

Huge pit find

The world's largest cave shaft, named the Cave of Swallows, was found in Aquismón, Mexico. It measures 370 m (1,214 ft) in depth, deep enough for the Eiffel Tower to easily fit inside it.

1966

Off to Neverland!

Scottish author J M Barrie's play Peter and Wendy, about Peter Pan – a young boy from a place called Neverland who could fly – had its opening night.

1904

Born this day

1995 Timothée Chalamet, US actor. He rose to fame in the film Call Me By Your Name, and has gone on to receive praise and award nominations for his work.

