

April

1

Nunavut

In the Northwest Territories in northern Canada, a new homeland for an Indigenous people called the Inuit was created. In the Inuit language, Nunavut means “Our Land”.

1999

Also on this day

1976 Business partners Steve Jobs and Steve Wozniak launched the Apple Computer Company in California, USA.

2001 The Netherlands became the first country in the world to legalize marriage between two people of the same sex.

2013 In Saudi Arabia, construction began on the Jeddah Tower, planned to be the world's first 1 km (0.6 mile) high skyscraper.

1973 Project Tiger

With the Royal Bengal tiger, India's national animal, in danger of extinction from hunting and habitat destruction, the Indian government launched “Project Tiger”. The organization works to safeguard tiger habitats and increase the numbers of these tigers living in the wild.

1983

Human chain protest

Seventy thousand women gathered to protest against nuclear weapons being installed. They made a 22 km (14 mile) human chain stretching from an US Air Force base in the UK to a nuclear weapons factory.

Born this day

1776 Sophie Germain, French scientist. She confounded 18th-century expectations of women by making great contributions to mathematics.

1940 Wangari Maathai, Kenyan environmental activist. She was the first African woman to be awarded the Nobel Peace Prize.

