

THE DASHBOARD

India's Electronics Exports Rise 30.4% YoY Between April-January Of FY26

India's electronics exports surged despite global headwinds, with January 2026 shipments valued at $4.11 billion. Between April-January FY26, exports reached $39.4 billion, up from $30.2 billion last year, marking 30.4% growth YoY, the strongest among major categories. Mobile phones led with $23.9 billion, compared to $18.3 billion previously. Electronics is driving India's shift from consumer market to export hub.

(Source: ICEA)

AI Notebooks Fuel India's 10.2% PC Market Growth In 2025

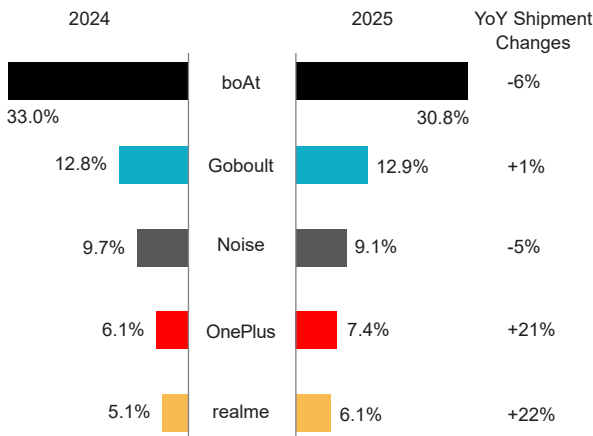

India's PC market reached a record 15.9 million shipments in 2025, rising 10.2% YoY and surpassing pandemic-era peaks. Q4 shipments hit 4.1 million units, up 18.5%. Notebooks grew 12.4%, desktops 3.6%, and workstations 24.2%, while AI notebooks surged 129.3%. Among the vendors, HP led with 29.1% share, followed by Lenovo (18.7%), Dell (15.1%), Acer (15.0%), and ASUS (7.6%).

Company	2025 Shipments (thousands of units)	2025 Market Share	2024 Shipments (thousands of units)	2024 Market Share	YoY Unit Change
HP Inc.	4635	29.1%	4345	30.1%	6.7%
Lenovo	2978	18.7%	2485	17.2%	19.8%
Dell Technologies	2402	15.1%	2329	16.1%	3.1%
Acer Group	2389	15.0%	2176	15.1%	9.8%
Asus	1206	7.6%	1014	7.0%	18.8%
Others	2309	14.5%	2099	14.5%	10.0%
Total	15,918	100.0%	14,449	100.0%	10.2%

(Source: IDC)

India's TWS Market Shows Modest Growth Of 1% YoY In 2025

India's TWS market grew just 1% YoY in 2025, lifted by festive Q4 sales that rose 12%. Among the market players, boAt led with a 30.8% share, despite a 6% decline, while OnePlus and realme posted shipment gains of 21% and 22%, respectively. Feature adoption accelerated, with ANC devices up 24% and spatial audio expanding 67%, signalling a shift toward advanced, AI-driven audio experiences.

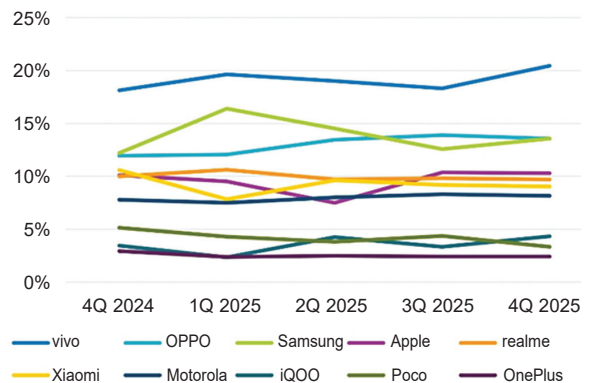

(Source: Counterpoint Research)

Smartphone Shipments in India Edge Up 0.5% In 2025

India's smartphone market grew just 0.5% YoY in 2025, shipping 152 million units. Fourth-quarter shipments fell 5% to 34 million amid cautious spending. vivo led the market with 19.3% share, followed by Samsung (14.1%) and OPPO (13.3%). Apple shipped a record 14 million iPhones, gaining 15.5%, while Motorola rose 33.5%. ASPs hit a record US$282, up 8% YoY.

India Top 10 Smartphone Brands (Unit Market Share)

(Source: IDC)