JANARDHANA SWAMY AND NEHA J.S.

Wear this all night. The robot I've been building in the basement is not fully tested yet!

I went into medical college because I was afraid of technology. Now look at this!

Why learn anything more? AI will tell us most of it, and the patients will cover the rest anyway!

Ladies and gentlemen, interestingly, all the winners this time are humanoid robots!

This board is so unreliable, we need more time to run the reliability tests to confirm its reliability!

Dad says that according to the 'Theory of Relativity,' whether the fan moves or we move, it is all the same!
