JANARDHANA SWAMY AND NEHA J.S.

I'm so happy you're always reachable and your phone battery never runs out!

As integration reduces component count, some customers feel they're getting less. How about adding some dummy ICs?

Our apartment rules don't allow ceiling fans.

Mommy, is using this TV so much the reason it wore out and became so thin?

Hey, did we get those 'Made in India' stickers from China that we ordered last week?

Okay, take it. Never complain again that I don't give you the remote. Return it when the power comes back!
