

Let it snow!

Snow is made when tiny ice crystals inside clouds stick together and become a snowflake. You can make pretend snow, then build your very own snowpeople!

You will need:

2 cups baking soda

2 cups shaving foam

We used to be snowflakes!

Most rain starts off as snow. But it melts before it gets to the ground and turns into raindrops.

