

ASSAM TEA'S STRENGTH AND ASTRINGENCY ARE WELL SUITED TO STAND UP TO STRONG SPICES

3 Add 2¾ cups water to the pan and bring to a boil on high heat. Reduce the heat and let the tea simmer, all the while stirring with the spoon.

4 Add the milk and sugar and continue stirring. Simmer for an additional 2 minutes, allowing all the ingredients to blend. Remove the pan from the heat and strain the tea into a teapot.

SERVE IT UP

Pour into mugs or cups from a height of at least 12in (30cm) to create foam on the surface.