JANARDHANA SWAMY AND NEHA J.S.

Finally, I got the signal—now we can search where the Taj Mahal is!

Sir, this is the maximum pressure. What you really need is a hydraulic press!

How is your 'autonomous self-driving vehicle' project coming up?

That's a 12-hour insight into doing things on time. But what about dinner now—it's 7 in the morning?

So, what is your wish, Robo? No one has ever prayed this long for me in history!

I am your future human—I just time-travelled to see how things are in my past.
