

THE DASHBOARD

India's Smartphone Market Stumbles With 9.7% Dip In January 2025

India's smartphone shipments dropped 9.7% YoY in January 2025, totaling 11.1 million units, following a 3% decline in 4Q24. Apple continued to shine, increasing shipments by 11.7% and holding an 11.4% market share. Meanwhile, other vendors battled mixed results—Samsung saw a sharp 19.5% decline, while OPPO enjoyed a 5.9% growth. The slowdown is attributed to low demand, surplus inventory, and market saturation.

India Smartphone Market, Top 5 Brands (Monthly Unit Market Share)

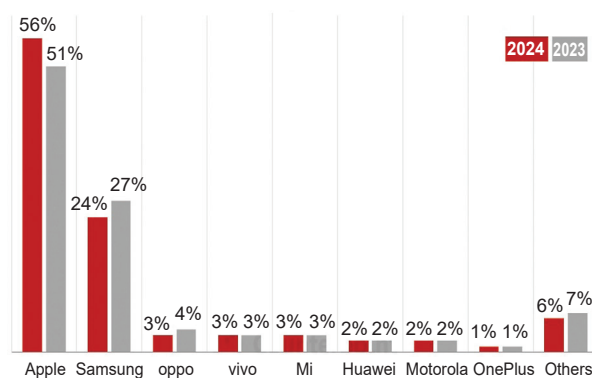

(Source: IDC)

Refurbished Smartphone Market Grows 5%, Apple Dominates

Global refurbished smartphone sales grew 5% in 2024, outperforming new smartphone sales, which rose 3%. Apple dominated with 56% market share, driven by demand for older iPhones. The average selling price dropped 11% to $394. Samsung's share fell to 24%. 5G smartphones now account for 42% of the refurbished market, up from 28% in 2023. A recovery is expected in 2025.

Global Refurbished Smartphone Sales By OEM Share

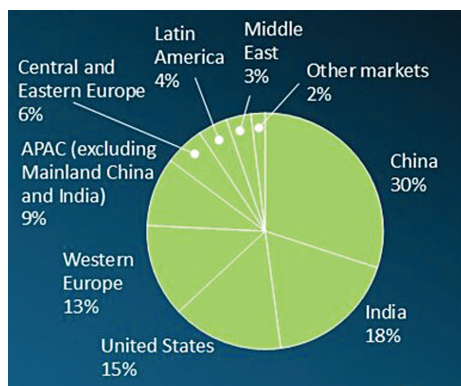

(Source: Counterpoint Research)

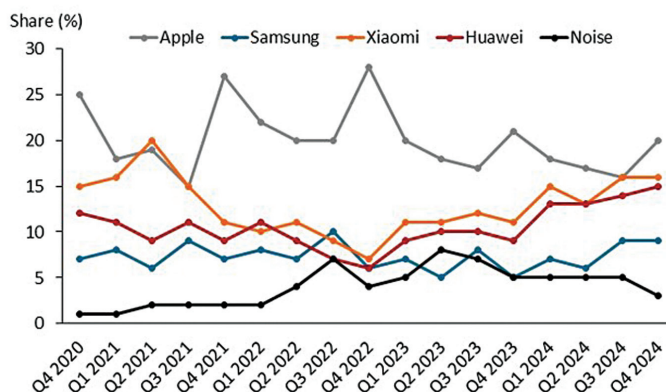

Global Wearable Sales Up 4%, China Leads While India Struggles

The global wearable band market saw a modest growth of 4% in 2024, hitting 193 million units, with China leading the charge, capturing 30% of shipments and growing 20% YoY. In contrast, India, the world's second-largest market, faced a 22% dip (only 18% shipments) due to struggles with basic watch performance. Meanwhile, Xiaomi and Huawei saw a market growth of 42.2% and 54.2%, respectively. Although the top vendor and controlling 20% of shipments in 4Q24, Apple saw a decline of 3%.

Global Wearable Band Shipments By Sub-regions And Major Markets, 2024

Global Wearable Band Shipment Share By Vendor

(Source: Canalys)