

40.5 KEY LANGUAGE CONTRACTIONS OF "MIGHT"

In spoken English, "have" is often contracted in phrases with "might."

He might have got lost.

He might've got lost.

He might not have found the path.

He might not've found the path.

40.6 FILL IN THE GAPS BY CONTRACTING "HAVE"

Alan might not've (might not have) read the map correctly.

- 1 Georgia _____ (might have) walked around the lake.
- 2 They _____ (might not have) reached the valley yet.
- 3 We _____ (might have) left the supplies at the tent.
- 4 Horace _____ (might not have) climbed the mountain.

40.7 SAY THE SENTENCES OUT LOUD, CONTRACTING "HAVE"

I might not have seen Iris at the lake.

I might not've seen Iris at the lake.

- 1 Dad might have bought me a new compass.

- 2 They might not have crossed the river yet.

- 3 Jonah might have pitched the tent by now.

- 4 I can't find my map. I might not have packed it.

- 5 Don might have hiked over the mountain already.

