

74.7 KEY LANGUAGE REPORTING QUESTIONS WITH "OR"

You can also use "if" or "whether" to report questions that use "or" in direct speech.

Does Jo want tea or coffee?

Jo, Tom asked me if you wanted tea or coffee.

Verb moves back to past tense.

74.8 FURTHER EXAMPLES REPORTING QUESTIONS WITH "OR"

Do you want to go by car or by train?

She asked whether we wanted to go by car or by train.

Do you prefer books or movies?

Riku asked me if I preferred books or movies.

74.9 MATCH THE PICTURES TO THE CORRECT SENTENCES

1

2

3

4

5

He asked me if I played badminton or tennis.

We asked if they'd like ice cream or cake.

He asked her whether she preferred cycling or walking.

She asked if I wanted to cook inside or outside.

I asked if I should take flowers or wine to the party.

He asked whether they'd rather be rich or famous.

