

08 Routine and free time

You can use adverbs of frequency to talk accurately about your daily routine and how often you do work and leisure activities.

 New language Adverbs of frequency

Aa Vocabulary Leisure activities

 New skill Talking about routines

8.1 KEY LANGUAGE ADVERBS OF FREQUENCY

Adverbs of frequency sit between the subject of the sentence and the main verb.

8.2 CROSS OUT THE INCORRECT WORDS TO MAKE PAIRS OF SENTENCES WITH SIMILAR MEANINGS

- We go to the theater a few times a year. = We occasionally / ~~often~~ go to the theater.
- ① We spend every Christmas together. = We usually / always spend Christmas together.
- ② It rains here about three times a week. = It frequently / hardly ever rains here.
- ③ She goes swimming six days a week. = She very often / sometimes goes swimming.
- ④ They go to the gym twice a week. = They regularly / nearly always go to the gym.
- ⑤ I stay late at work about once a month. = I often / rarely stay late at work.

