

35.8 KEY LANGUAGE "FEWER" AND "LESS"

Confusion between "less" and "fewer" is very common. Remember to use "less" with uncountable nouns and "fewer" with plural countable nouns.

There are fewer issues with electric cars these days.

"Issues" is a plural countable noun.

It would be great to use less fuel.

"Fuel" is an uncountable noun.

35.9 FURTHER EXAMPLES "FEWER" AND "LESS"

There are fewer whales in the oceans nowadays.

Fewer people enjoy gardening these days.

We need to spend less money.

"Money" is uncountable, but currencies like "dollars" are countable.

There is much less traffic today.

35.10 MATCH THE BEGINNINGS OF THE SENTENCES TO THE CORRECT ENDINGS

People are spending much less

1 Protesters have demanded fewer

2 The charity has fewer

3 The new light bulbs use far less

4 Unsurprisingly, there is much less

5 Since the new traffic laws, there is a lot less volunteers than last year.

wildlife near big factory sites.

money on organic food than expected.

electricity than the old ones.

pollution in the capital city.

harmful emissions by 2025.

