

04 Complex descriptions

When you describe something using more than one adjective, the adjectives usually have to go in a specific order. There are several categories of adjectives.

 New language General and specific adjectives

Aa Vocabulary Personalities

 New Skill Ordering adjectives

4.1 KEY LANGUAGE ADJECTIVE ORDER

Opinion adjectives come before factual ones in a sentence. General opinion adjectives always come before specific opinion adjectives.

OPINION ADJECTIVES FACT ADJECTIVE

What a nice, friendly little cat!

"Nice" is a general opinion adjective. It can describe lots of different things.

"Friendly" is a specific opinion adjective. It usually only describes people or animals.

4.2 FURTHER EXAMPLES ADJECTIVE ORDER

It's a fantastic, exciting new movie.

He's a wonderful, kind old man.

What a horrible, ugly plastic table.

That's a lovely, stylish cotton shirt.

4.3 HOW TO FORM ADJECTIVE ORDER

Like opinion adjectives, fact adjectives must go in a particular order.

