

16.7 KEY LANGUAGE SUPERLATIVES WITH LONG ADJECTIVES

For some two-syllable adjectives and for adjectives of three syllables or more, use "the most" before the adjective. The form of the adjective doesn't change.

The Palace Hotel is more expensive than the Rialto, but the Biaritz is the most expensive hotel in the city.

Use "the most" with the adjective.

The adjective stays the same.

16.8 HOW TO FORM SUPERLATIVES WITH LONG ADJECTIVES

16.9 FURTHER EXAMPLES SUPERLATIVES WITH LONG ADJECTIVES

The science museum is the most interesting museum in town.

The Twister is the most exciting ride in the theme park.

This is the most comfortable chair in the room.

16.10 MATCH THE BEGINNINGS OF THE SENTENCES TO THE CORRECT ENDINGS

1	The Yangtze River is	the largest state in the US.
2	Antarctica is	the coldest place on Earth.
3	Mumbai is	the most dangerous snake in the world.
4	Alaska is	the longest river in Asia.
	The inland taipan is	the biggest city in India.

