

receptionist

mechanic

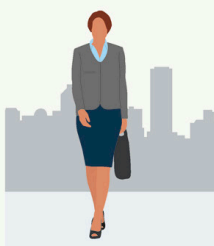

engineer

scientist

teacher

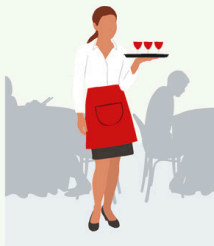

businesswoman

businessman

waiter

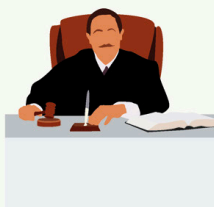

waitress

electrician

pilot

judge

9.2 PLURALS

Most nouns about people and jobs are made plural in the usual way by adding “-s” or “-es”.

driver

drivers

waitress

waitresses

Nouns that end in “man” change to end in “men” in the plural.

man

men

woman

women

businessman

businessmen

businesswoman

businesswomen

For nouns made up of two words, the second word is made plural.

police officer

police officers

