JANARDHANA SWAMY AND NEHA J.S.

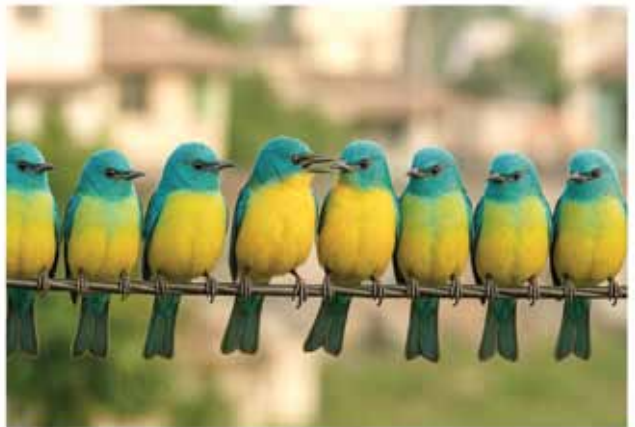

I hired him because he said he was good at AI and had no natural intelligence to interfere with his work.

You forgot to include a power inlet? That's brilliant! Should we claim it as a zero-power device?

Sir, can one live by touching the wire labelled 'Live'?

We are blindly following humans. I don't see a need for us to stay online like this all the time.

You're jobless only because your father worked so hard for all these years developing AI!

We took this up after losing our coding job. Are you sure this is AI-proof?
