

No madam, that is magnetic north. The true north is that direction!

Our drone is refusing to fly, citing bad weather conditions!

Don't you remember? We were childhood classmates—later you joined fitness classes, and I became an electronics engineer!

I am an IT service pro just returning to India. You'll first need to open a 'ticket' for me to buy a ticket!

The monitor is turning away from me! Who increased the 'shyness' portion in our AI algorithms, again?

Listen, the most economical 'water level alarm' is your neighbour shouting when it overflows!
