

Finance Ministry greenlights ₹250 billion incentive scheme for electronic components

The Union Finance Ministry has approved a ₹250 billion incentive scheme to boost local production of electronic components, set to debut in the Union Budget 2025. Aimed at reducing imports and enhancing domestic manufacturing, it targets components like PCBs, batteries, and displays. The scheme is expected to attract investment, create jobs, and strengthen India's role in the global electronics market.

Representational image

PEOPLE (on the move)

Sandeep Singh Arora becomes the new CBO of Xiaomi India

Xiaomi India has appointed Sandeep Singh Arora as its Chief Business Officer (CBO). With over 30 years of experience in consumer brand management, Arora will focus on revenue growth, partnerships, and market expansion. Previously, he led Samsung India's consumer electronics online business and held senior roles at PepsiCo, Unilever, and Bennett, Coleman & Co. Ltd.

Lee holds an Executive MBA degree from The Chinese University of Hong Kong.

Urja Mobility welcomes Parveen Sabharwal as its Director

Urja Mobility has appointed Parveen Sabharwal as Director to drive growth in India's e-mobility sector. With over 40 years of banking and finance experience, Sabharwal will focus on revenue growth and service expansion. His expertise in credit underwriting, sustainable finance, and strategic insights aligns with the company's mission to transform energy consumption in the EV sector.

Legrand India strengthens leadership team with new appointments

(Clockwise) Nisha Samuel, VP-HR, Satpal Singh, Director of Sales, and Ravindran SK, CBO, Numeric

Legrand India has announced key leadership changes to boost growth and innovation. Satpal Singh was appointed Director of Sales, Nisha Samuel joined as Vice President of Human Resources, and Ravindran SK was promoted to Chief Business Officer at Numeric, Legrand's UPS manufacturing subsidiary. With this, the company aims to strengthen its market position, enhance customer offerings, and drive operational excellence.

Zypp Electric appoints Manoj Kohli as Senior Advisor

Industry veteran Manoj Kohli has joined Zypp Electric as a Senior Advisor. His 45-year experience in telecom, renewable energy, and AI will guide the company's growth in the EV-as-a-service sector, focusing on last-mile delivery. Kohli's leadership aims to position Zypp Electric for an IPO within two years, enhancing its sustainable logistics and fleet optimisation.

Kwek You-Cheer joins AEM as its new CFO

Kwek You-Cheer, former CFO of Lenovo's APAC region, has been appointed Chief Financial Officer at AEM Holdings Ltd. With over 20 years of international financial experience, Kwek will lead AEM's economic strategy and operational efficiency. He has held key roles at Microsoft Hong Kong and Schneider Electric. AEM provides semiconductor and electronics test solutions globally.

Former Canon India VP Gary Lee becomes CEO of Canon Hong Kong

Canon Hong Kong has appointed Gary Lee, former Vice President and CFO of Canon India, as its new CEO. With over 30 years of experience, Lee will oversee operations in Hong Kong, Macau, and the Greater Bay Area. He is known for driving digital transformation and operational efficiency.

