JANARDHANA SWAMY AND NEHA J.S.

This is an EV without a battery. We use diesel to run an onboard electric generator that runs the motor!

I am on a cellphone tower. This is the best I can do. Can you hear me now?

Thank you for ordering our direverless car. If you need any help with finding a driver, just let me know.

The good news is we fixed all the bugs, except those we could not.

Less wind? How about installing a few large fans for the wind mill?

Here is your pizza, Sir. Delivery charge is eight million dollars. Will you pay by cash or card?
