JANARDHANA SWAMY AND NEHA J.S.

Humans have moved on with technology. So, now stop jumping around and start learning electronics!

You may need to come back tomorrow. I didn't know my laptop was down until just now.

This AI-powered self-driving ambulance arrives at the scene a few minutes early by predicting the accident!

Welcome to my 'Optimised Communication' class. Everything is at this link. The class is over. Bye!

Sir, unlike you, the reason I became a lecturer is it involves just teaching, without any understanding!

Let me assure you, the software we wrote for this 'Deep Fake' application is completely real!
