JANARDHANA SWAMY AND NEHA J.S.

Yesterday, I asked you to get some bridge rectifiers. Instead, you hired those guys overnight and rectified the bridge?

Perhaps you can help with this: If I hit and damage myself, does that mean I'm strong or weak, overall?

We don't have much data from the big data project—I wish we could collect some from the cloud during the next rain.

Sir, our startup is all about food delivery drones—available in many flavours, and yes, they're fully edible!

Two questions—how many volts will it have, and how many amps can I draw from it?

Sir, I had some free time today—hacked a few banks and transferred a couple of crores into your account.
