JANARDHANA SWAMY AND NEHA J.S.

I bought it online. It reports collection data and automatically compares it to the industry average!

The computer told me to upgrade to a new printer. The new printer says the computer is outdated!

Sorry for the delay in getting your light tea, Sir! Wiring the battery and LED itself took an hour.

Both of you are telling me I should be a down-to-earth person, but I want to be an astronaut!

I know I have to work on my communication with you more. How about TCP/IP or PCI?

Stop taking a bath every day to fix your rusting problem. Next time, please find an engineer!
