

67.6 KEY LANGUAGE AGREEMENT AFTER "EITHER... OR" AND "NEITHER...NOR"

When you use "either... or" or "neither...nor" to join two nouns, the verb agrees with the second noun. However, if the last noun is singular and the first is plural, you can use either a singular verb or a plural verb.

Either a tablet or a laptop is needed for the course.

The verb agrees with the second, singular noun.

Neither the teacher nor the children were happy.

The verb agrees with the second, plural noun.

Neither the classrooms nor the office has have internet access.

The verb can have singular or plural agreement.

67.7 MATCH THE BEGINNINGS OF THE SENTENCES TO THE CORRECT ENDINGS

I think either an email or a letter

1 Neither her mother nor her father

2 Either a cat or a dog

3 Either the diner or the coffee shop

4 Neither the boss nor the workers

5 We think that neither Tom nor Katya

6 Either the giraffes or the elephant

7 Neither my car nor my motorbike

is a great pet for a family.

is safe to drive anymore.

are happy with the announcement.

is fine for sending this kind of news.

has worked hard enough at school.

was there to pick her up from school.

are the most popular animals in the park.

is fine for our meeting.

