

68.3 KEY LANGUAGE "SO" AND "SUCH" WITH "THAT"

You can use "that" with "so" and "such" to introduce a particular result caused by the fact you are emphasizing.

"SUCH" + "A / AN" + NOUN + "THAT"

The disease is such a mystery that it doesn't even have a name yet.

"SUCH" + "A / AN" + ADJECTIVE + NOUN + "THAT"

This is such a strange injury that it is hard to diagnose.

"SO" + ADJECTIVE + "THAT"

Medical research is so expensive that drugs are often costly.

"SO" + ADVERB + "THAT"

He recovered so quickly that he was able to go home the next day.

68.4 MATCH THE BEGINNINGS OF THE SENTENCES TO THE CORRECT ENDINGS

The doctor was so tired that ① Dentistry is such a difficult job that

② He recovered so rapidly that

③ She had such steady hands that

④ The medicine tasted so bad that

⑤ It is such a new treatment that you have to train for many years.

only a few patients have had it.

he was soon able to walk again.

he nearly fell asleep!

she could perform delicate operations.

I nearly spat it all out!

