

③ If you join the water sports club, you can learn how to sail.

④ You can join today unless you need more time to think.

17.8

① If you hear discourse markers, use them to help organize your notes.

② When you take notes, use a simple shorthand with symbols and abbreviations.

③ If your handwriting is messy, try to make sure it is readable.

④ Unless you record every lecture, try to review your notes soon after.

17.9

②

17.10 Model Answer

Active note-taking examples:

Think about expected content before lecture.

Use own words for notes (paraphrase).

Find relationships between parts of lecture.

Write down follow-up questions.

18

18.3

① B ② C ③ D ④ A

18.5

① The vast majority of the lecture halls have wireless internet access.

② Just over a quarter of classes are recorded for students to listen to online.

③ After one week, most people know their way around campus.

④ Only a tiny minority of our students do not have smartphones.

⑤ Well over half of our students eat a hot meal on campus.

⑥ Just over two-thirds of our professors can speak two languages.

18.7

① True ② False ③ True ④ True ⑤ False

18.9 Model Answers

① Really? I heard that there are 40 different clubs.

② Is that so? I read that most students prefer to live on campus.

③ Are you sure? I was told that they have a dedicated team to help with future career decisions.

19

19.4

②

19.5

① English is spoken by millions of people across the world.

② Online courses are being studied by a variety of students.

③ The courses are being paid for by a number of universities.

④ Certificates can be printed out at home by participants.

⑤ Some exams can be taken in several different languages.

19.6

① Eighty percent of the courses are written in English.

② Credits are offered for MOOC courses (by some universities).

③ Technical help is provided for the participants (by some people).

④ Next year, MOOCs will be taken by millions of students.

19.8

① downfall ② crackdown ③ backup
④ login ⑤ input ⑥ leftovers ⑦ check-in
⑧ outset

19.9

① Not given ② True ③ Not given

19.10

① The things we learn are tested in a weekly online exam.

② The face-to-face lessons expand on the online course input.

③ From the outset, I knew this course would be successful.

④ Lack of motivation has always been my downfall in online learning.

⑤ The course is written by language-learning experts.

⑥ They have made changes to make it easier to log in to your account.

⑦ There has also been a crackdown on security to prevent cheating.

20

20.3

① I'm going to take a water bottle in case the exam room is hot.

② Suppose you cannot afford to study. Maybe you could apply for funding.

③ I am studying really hard tonight in case we have a test tomorrow.

④ What if I forget to bring a calculator? Maybe they will have spares.

20.6

① Likely ② Unlikely ③ Likely
④ Unlikely ⑤ Likely ⑥ Unlikely
⑦ Likely ⑧ Unlikely

20.8

① False ② False ③ False ④ True

20.9

① Unlikely ② Likely ③ Likely
④ Unlikely

20.10 Model Answers

① I'd like to meet Abraham Lincoln.

② I would make fruit and vegetables free for everybody.

③ I'll apply for a place at college.

22

22.3

① Before seeing that job listing, I thought I would never find my perfect job.

② After qualifying as an engineer, I volunteered in Cambodia.

③ Instead of working in a low-paid job, I decided to train as an accountant.

④ Without passing my exams, it would be difficult to have a decent career.

22.4

① False ② True ③ Not given ④ True
⑤ False ⑥ Not given

22.5

① keen ② have an eye for detail
③ post ④ in the near future
⑤ take the position

22.6

① True ② Not given ③ False ④ True
⑤ False

22.7

① Work experience and skills
② Say what you were doing
③ Less than two sides of paper

22.8

① The job was quite challenging in terms of improving the consumer experience.