

37.2

- Ⓐ It was raining, so I could not have gone sunbathing even if I had wanted to.
 Ⓑ Look at him! Do you think he might have won the lottery?
 Ⓒ If I had left the house a little earlier, I might not have missed the bus.
 Ⓓ I don't know where she is. She could have gone for a run. She loves exercise.

37.3 Model Answers

- Ⓐ At first she believed it, but now she thinks it couldn't have happened.
 Ⓑ They were celebrating because they had just won a tournament.
 Ⓒ They dressed it up in one of their golf jackets.
 Ⓓ The kangaroo hit one of the golfers on the nose.
 Ⓔ They couldn't continue driving home because the car keys were in the jacket the kangaroo was wearing.

37.5

- Ⓐ Amal mentioned that she was reading a scary story.
 Ⓑ Amal told me that she had finished the book.
 Ⓒ I asked her if / whether she was going to the movies.
 Ⓓ I asked her what kind of movie she was going to see.
 Ⓔ I asked her if / whether she enjoyed it.

37.6

- Ⓐ True Ⓑ False Ⓒ True Ⓓ Not given
 Ⓔ False

37.7

- Ⓐ I was so angry that I just saw red and shouted.
 Ⓑ The poor dog had been left in the cold and was a very sorry sight.
 Ⓒ The watch looked genuine at first sight, but it wasn't.
 Ⓓ I'll just have to wait and see about my English test results.

38.2

- Ⓐ He's walking with crutches. He must have hurt his legs.
 Ⓑ Those teenagers look very tired today. They may have had a party last night.
 Ⓒ The plants are all dry and dead. It can't have rained all week.
 Ⓓ Someone's left the gate open again. It could have been the delivery man.
 Ⓔ The girl next door looks really happy. She might have passed her exam.

38.3

- Ⓐ The ground is dry so it can't have rained last night.
 Ⓑ She ate two more slices of cake, so it must have tasted nice.
 Ⓒ A police car just drove past. There might have been a robbery.
 Ⓓ He doesn't have any money. He can't have bought that car himself.
 Ⓔ They were in the same store as us. They might have bought the same coat.

38.4

- Ⓐ I missed a call. It may have been Diego, he said he might call.
 Ⓑ I haven't checked my emails yet, so she might have replied already, I'm not sure.
 Ⓒ After the run, he drank a whole bottle of water. He must have been really thirsty.
 Ⓓ She loved both dresses, but she can't have bought both, as they were too expensive.
 Ⓔ She hadn't slept for two days. She must have been exhausted.

38.5

- Ⓐ She must have passed her driving test.
 Ⓑ He must have slept through his alarm.
 Ⓒ They must have failed their exams.
 Ⓓ She must have eaten too much candy.
 Ⓔ He must have won the lottery.

38.6

Ⓐ

38.7

- Ⓐ Every month my company sends out a newsletter to all its customers.
 Ⓑ Every time my sister sees a spider, she freaks out and starts screaming.
 Ⓒ Should we go to the movie theater and check out what's showing?
 Ⓓ He isn't like anyone else. He really stands out from the crowd.

- Ⓔ I can't work out what this guy's written. His handwriting is awful.

38.8

- Ⓐ False Ⓑ False Ⓒ True Ⓓ True

39.3

- Ⓐ You wouldn't be such a success today if you hadn't worked so hard at school.
 Ⓑ If my alarm had gone off, I wouldn't be in trouble for being late.
 Ⓒ She might not be such a celebrity if she hadn't had famous parents.
 Ⓓ He would be playing today if he hadn't broken his leg yesterday.
 Ⓔ If you had spent less money, you wouldn't have such great tickets.
 Ⓕ If I had given up trying, I wouldn't be managing the business today.
 Ⓖ If we had eaten breakfast, we might not be so hungry now.

39.4

- Ⓐ If Clara had not stayed up so late, she might not be so tired now.
 Ⓑ She might not be a famous actress if she had not gone to that first audition.
 Ⓒ If he had kept playing the guitar, he would be in a famous band by now.
 Ⓓ If Juan had listened to all his critics, he would not be a world-famous chef today.
 Ⓔ He would not be playing for a premier team if he had not trained every day.
 Ⓕ If she had said "yes" to your proposal, you could be married by now.
 Ⓖ They would not be so confident if they had seen their team training yesterday.

39.5

- Ⓐ False Ⓑ True Ⓒ True Ⓓ False Ⓔ False

39.6

- Ⓐ You need reliable staff who turn up on time and do their work.
 Ⓑ He's so courageous. He just jumped into the fire to save the kitten.
 Ⓒ My husband is really sensitive. He even cries during romantic films.
 Ⓓ If he hadn't been so violent and quick-tempered, he would not be in jail today.
 Ⓔ If she hadn't been so determined, she might not be such a successful singer.
 Ⓕ Jane is very practical. She can fix the car and put up shelves.