

12.4 KEY LANGUAGE FORMAL LINKING DISCOURSE MARKERS

Some discourse markers are used most often in formal writing and speaking situations.

The castle was built in 1272, { whereas yet } the town is modern.

Shows contrast.

His talk was popular and his book was { similarly equally } well-liked.

Shows comparison.

International video calls are popular { due to
owing to } global internet access.

Shows reason.

Many foreigners settled there. { Hence
Therefore }, the population is bilingual.

Shows result.

He is known for his research, { primarily notably } into royal families.

Shows emphasis.

12.5 FILL IN THE GAPS USING FORMAL DISCOURSE MARKERS

James won many medals, notably one for bravery.

- ① Elizabeth had two children, _____ Mary had none.
- ② The two elderly sisters were _____ wealthy.
- ③ The father left the army _____ a serious arm injury.
- ④ James and Tom were identical twins. _____, they looked alike.

