

I'm stepping down to let another person do the job.

step down

[stop doing a job voluntarily]

We had to tackle this problem head-on before it got worse.

tackle something head-on

[deal with something directly]

We've set our sights on being number one in our industry.

set your sights on something

[aim to achieve a particular goal]

You need to work hard to get ahead in this industry.

get ahead

[make more progress than others]

We took on three new members of staff this year.

take somebody on / take on somebody

[employ somebody]

I'm sorry I didn't answer your email. I was snowed under.

be snowed under

[have too much work to do]

She must have her hands full with those four children.

have your hands full

[be busy with a task or many tasks]

I can't come out because I'm up to my eyes with work.

be up to your eyes / ears

[be so busy that you can't take on anything else]

He always goes the extra mile to ensure deliveries are on time.

go the extra mile

[do more than you are required to do]

The deal involved give and take on both sides.

give and take

[compromise]

