

41 Plans and suggestions

English uses modal verbs to make suggestions, and indirect questions or the passive voice to politely request information or point out a mistake.

-  New language Indirect questions
- Aa Vocabulary Business negotiations
-  New skill Negotiating politely

Aa 41.1 MATCH THE BEGINNINGS OF THE SENTENCES TO THE CORRECT ENDINGS

- | | |
|--|--|
| Would you mind bringing ① Are you able to pay ② We might move forward with the contract ③ I would like to resolve this issue ④ Maybe we could discuss some ⑤ We were thinking ⑥ I'm afraid I was hoping for | our fee in installments? as soon as possible. the delivery date forward by a week? that you could design our new logo. if you would consider buying in bulk. something more innovative. alternative options for the design. |
|--|--|

41.2 LISTEN TO THE AUDIO, THEN NUMBER THE SENTENCES IN THE ORDER YOU HEAR THEM

Pippa is negotiating with a client over her contract to redecorate his store.

- | | |
|--|-------------------------------------|
| A Well, we were hoping for something more modern. | ☐ |
| B I'm afraid we need it sooner. | ☐ |
| C I was wondering what sort of look you want. | ☒ |
| D Would you mind waiting until next month for payment? | ☐ |
| E I was thinking we could use the company colors. | ☐ |
| F Are you able to pay in installments? | ☐ |