

2 To charge less than others who sell the same goods or services as you

5 The amount or value of total sales over a particular period

8 A major decline in economic activity

11 A change to more positive business conditions

14 The rate at which money comes into and goes out of a business

17 To no longer be able to exist as a business to make a loss      an upturn in the market sales figures      income an economic downturn      overheads the exchange rate      cash flow an overdraft      to get into debt to go out of business      to peak expenditure / outlay      ~~a budget~~ to undercut competitors      to drop accounts      to break even

