

2 A process to check that goods meet certain standards

5 Requiring a lot of human effort to make something

8 The basic substances that are used to make a product

11 A place where goods are stored before being shipped to customers or sellers

14 Manufacturing too much of something in relation to demand

17 A company that provides or supplies another company with goods and services packaging

labor-intensive

mass production

shipping

ethically sourced

handmade

raw materials

a one-off production

~~quality control~~

overproduction

stock

product approval

a factory

a prototype

a warehouse

product testing

a supplier

a production line

