

42 Questions overview

42.1 FORMING QUESTIONS

Questions in English are formed either by swapping the positions of the subject and the verb, or by using the auxiliary verb "do."

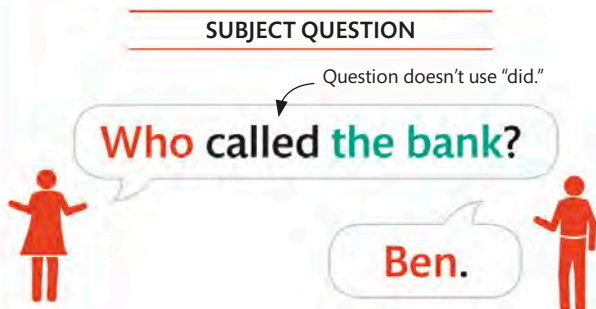

42.2 SUBJECT AND OBJECT QUESTIONS

Questions in English are formed differently depending on whether they are asking who or what did an action or who or what received an action.

Subject questions ask who did an action. The question word is the subject of the main verb. They do not use the auxiliary verb "do."

Object questions ask who received an action. The question word is the object of the question. They usually use the auxiliary verb "do."
