

52.2 VERBS WITH GERUNDS

English uses gerunds after certain verbs that say how a person feels about an activity.

FURTHER EXAMPLES

He doesn't feel like playing tennis tonight.

We really dislike jogging.
We're so out of shape!

Do you miss skiing now that summer is here?

I really enjoy running marathons.

Would you consider applying for a promotion?

He doesn't mind staying late at work when he has to.

OTHER VERBS FOLLOWED BY GERUNDS

