

04 The present continuous

The present continuous is used to talk about continued actions that are happening in the present moment. It is formed with "be" and a present participle.

See also:

Present simple 1 Action and state verbs 50

Infinitives and participles 51

4.1 THE PRESENT CONTINUOUS

The present continuous is used to describe a current, continued action.

Julie usually wears jeans, but today she is wearing a dress.

The present continuous uses the verb "be."

This is the present continuous. It describes what is happening right now.

This is the present simple. It describes a repeated action or situation.

HOW TO FORM

Present participle

FURTHER EXAMPLES

We are walking the dog.

They're fighting with each other.

He is washing the dishes.

She's relaxing at the moment.

They are talking on their phones.

It's raining a lot outside.

