

85.2 "THERE" IN THE PAST SIMPLE

In the past simple, "there was" is used to talk about singular or uncountable nouns, and "there were" is used to talk about plural nouns.

There was a party here last night.

There were 150 people at the party!

FURTHER EXAMPLES

There was singing and dancing.

There was a clown to entertain the children.

There was a huge mess to clean afterwards.

There were balloons and streamers.

There were speeches after the meal.

There were waiters to refill the guests' drinks.

HOW TO FORM

