

106.2 PRECISE PREPOSITIONS OF PLACE

Some prepositions of place show the precise position or location of something in relation to something else. They can be used to answer a "where" question.

The bird is flying above the cat.

The bird is sitting
on top of the tree.

The dog usually sits
between Ed and Ben.

The cat is { under underneath
beneath
below} the table.

Jack is { next to near} the tree.

The basket is
in front of the cat.

Jack is hiding
behind the tree.

Sally sits opposite
Fred at work.

FURTHER EXAMPLES

There's a sign above the door.

There's a mouse underneath the bed!

My house is near a lovely park.

The table is opposite the television.

I was stuck behind a truck
all the way home.

I like those photos
on top of the bookshelf.

