

108.2 "WITH" AND "WITHOUT"

"With" has several common uses in English.

It can mean "accompanied by."

I went to a restaurant with my wife.

It is used to talk about possession.

I want a job with a good salary.

It is used to talk about the thing used to perform an action.

I cut this apple with a knife.

"Without" is used to talk about the absence of something.

Vera came to the party without a gift.

FURTHER EXAMPLES

I need to move somewhere with better phone reception.

I need to hire someone with excellent computer skills.

Christina paid for the dress with her credit card.

Wait! Don't leave without me!

108.3 "ABOUT"

"About" is mainly used to mean "on the subject of."

I'm watching a documentary about Ancient Greece.

FURTHER EXAMPLES

I'm going to call the bank about their bad service.

I'm sorry, but I have no idea what you're talking about.

