

28.2 USING "GET" IN PASSIVE CONSTRUCTIONS

"Get" can sometimes replace "be" in passive sentences.
This form is more informal than the passive with "be."

PRESENT SIMPLE PASSIVE

Bikes get stolen in this town every day.

My friend's bike got stolen yesterday.

PAST SIMPLE PASSIVE

FURTHER EXAMPLES

The windows get washed once a month.

This package got delivered today. I wonder what it is.

My laptop gets updated every week by the IT team.

I hope the air conditioning will get fixed soon.

More and more items are getting recycled these days.

Did you know that the company was getting sold?

HOW TO FORM

SUBJECT

His bike

"GET / GOT"

got

PAST PARTICIPLE

stolen

REST OF SENTENCE

yesterday.

The thing that receives the action.

A form of "get" is used instead of "be."

The past participle describes what happens to the subject.